Title: Xanthar

Author: Vance Harrow
-----

Xanthar (of the Museum) as he was known to many. Could easily be described as the father of rare collecting.

He spent his days decorating his towers on

Ice Isle to share history and items of wonder to the Atlantic community.

Sadly, there is no trace of his existance as his towers have since been demolished. However his kindness and and devotion to the community will always be remembered by everyone who he crossed paths with.
